OIKE

Third edition of 1998-1999

Bobo McFo, no one knows where he came from or what drug he is on. but, he's an engineer, and thats good enough for us.

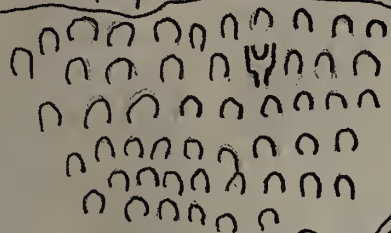

safety tip from Bobo McFo

Bobo McFo goes to an artsie lecture

Hello, everyone. Welcome to lecture 2 of Introduction to the political pseudoscience of neo-religious post-Feminist philosophy, or writing diphthongs with in verse anterior gerunds.

Today we will be examining the classical Platonic relationships between grecian culinary motifs.

If you read textbook pages 5 through 817, you may or may not have had a paper cut from the pop-up on p. 542. Ending sentences with prepositions is something up with which we do not put.

"Death!" said I to the gilded cow. Socrates would spit in the eye of a turtle if his monosyllabic bric-a-brac could swim in its aqueous humour. Back! Back! I want my pincers back! I had nine arms, once.

What happened to him?

Looks like his head exploded.

Again.
